

SÓNICA YEPES

Singer, composer and voice teacher.

The daughter of actors, she grew up in the city of Madrid. In Germany and the USA, countries where she has lived between 1995 and 2015, she has studied and developed her career as a musician and performer, collaborating with renowned artists and ensembles.

She has a degree in Music with a specialty in singing, vocal jazz, specializing in Musical Theater from the Folkwang Universität der Künste Superior Conservatory, in the City of Essen (Germany).

She was awarded in the "Voice and Guitar" contest in Germany, and in "Jazz Inn Niedersachsen" with the Nachtgefühl trio.

As an actress, she participates in works by María Sorribes, Deborah Pascual... She sings in the production "VoCABULARIES" by American vocalist Bobby McFerrin; next to him and under his direction, she has performed on a European tour with this program.

Record and edit multiple solo works.

As a teacher of vocal technique, interpretation, she develops her own spontaneous vocal creation workshop entitled "Cántame Cosas", inspired by learning as a singer with the American vocalist Bobby McFerrin and her spontaneous creation methodology called "Circle Singing".

"Cántame Cosas" has been taught in Germany and Spain in schools and venues such as: Sedajazz, Valencia; EntreArts Camí de Nora Festival Theater, Sagunto; Confusion Fest Benimaclet, Valencia; Waldorf Flor de Azahar School, Ribarroja; Folkwang Musikschule Essen, Germany; Music Today Monchengladbach, Germany; VHS Essen and Bochum, Germany.