

PAULA GARCÍA TERRÓN

Professor of musical didactics at the International University of La Rioja and musical initiation in different music schools in Valencia.

He graduated from the Alicante Conservatory of Music, finishing his violin studies with Rubén Adám.

He received violin and orchestral training from teachers such as Anabel Garcia, Enrique Palomares and Tobias Gossman. He continues his career specializing in Musical Pedagogy and Musicology, in addition to training as a Secondary Education teacher specializing in Music.

He currently carries out his teaching work in combination with orchestral activity and his training in Musical Pedagogy, earning a doctorate through the University of Lleida in a line of research in Musical and Inclusive Education.